HONORING SHEIKH ALI & THE STUDENTS OF DR. SHAKIR

On Sunday, July 30, 2017, Muslims of the Detroit Metro area came together to remember the great work and legacy of Dr. Abdulmunim Shakir and to recognize Noted Educator, Sheikh, Ali Suleiman Ali for his contribution to the education of many brothers and sisters in our community.

Dr. Shakir was a professor of Islamic Studies and Arabic language in the Wayne County Community College District in Detroit, Michigan. In 1980, Imam Warith Deen Mohammed encouraged his followers to come to Detroit to study Islam and Arabic under Dr. Shakir. Many of us did, and in turn, a few of us became teachers.

With the beautiful view of the Detroit River and the Canadian shoreline as the backdrop, Certificates of Appreciation were given to Imam Salim Mu'min, Imam Tauheed Rashad, Imam Derrick Ali, Imam Shukri Abdul-Ghani, Imam Garret Jihad, Imam Siddiq Jihad, Imam Mitchell Shamsud-Din, Imam Nadir Muhsin, Imam Ajib Rashadeen, Imam Hanif Abdul Malik, Imam Abdullah El-Amin, Dr. Cheryl El-Amin, Eric Sabree, Imam Nadir Ahmad, Imam Shams ElDeen, and Sis. Tamara El-Amin who were students of Dr. Shakir. Awards were presented by Imam Achmet Sahlie, Professor of Islamic Studies at The University of Detroit Mercy. These 15 individuals help to carry the teachings of Dr. Shakir with them as educators and leaders in the Muslim Community. We are thankful for their leadership and hard work.

In addition to receiving the certificate of appreciation, Imam Nadir Ahmad also received the Spirit of Detroit Award from City Councilman Scott Benson (represented by Imam Mika'il Saadiq) for his work in the field of education as Director of Al-Ikhlās Academy.

Sheikh Ali Suleiman Ali, was presented with a plaque of Appreciation from the Muslim Community for being a great educational resource. Imam Mustafa El-Turk, Co-Chairman of The Council of Imams of the Michigan Muslim Community Council presented the award. City, County and State resolutions were given to Sheikh Ali from Councilman Scott Benson (represented by Imam Mika'il Saadiq), Wayne County Commissioner Martha Scott, and MI State Representative Sherry Gay-Dagno (represented by LaMar Lemons). The resolutions for Sheikh Ali's work will be enshrined in the city of Detroit, Wayne County and the state of Michigan records. Steve Sprietzer, President and CEO of The Michigan Roundtable for Diversity and Inclusion, presented Sheikh Ali with a resolution from his organization for promoting respect for religious tolerance.

The most moving words were spoken by Eric Sabree, friend, world traveling companion, and Wayne County Treasurer.

Special recognition was given to the wife of Sheikh Ali, Sr Fatima. Behind every great man is a great woman... Sheikh Ali's children wrote reflective remarks on their father as read by his daughter. Her words brought tears to our eyes.

This event was sponsored by the Detroit Muslim Mission, Wayne County Community College District and The Shakir Charitable Trust.

MUSLIM TRAVEL BAN UPDATE

On Monday, June 26, 2017 the Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) weighed in on the two temporary restraining orders which previously blocked Trump's Executive Order implementing "Muslim Ban 2.0."

The Supreme Court is scheduled to hear the full case in October 2017, but the Order released on June 26 made some changes to the Temporary Restraining Order that allowed some parts of the Executive Order to take effect.

SCOTUS has permitted a ban on travel for individuals coming from the six majority Muslim Countries who do not have a "credible" relationship to an individual, company, or university in the US.

WHERE DOES THAT LEAVE MUSLIM TRAVELERS FOR NOW?

Citizens and Lawful Permanent Residents who are nationals of the six designated countries were not part of the second Executive Order and should not experience any issues traveling abroad in light of the SCOTUS Ruling.

Individuals who have already applied and received visas to come to the US should NOT encounter problems traveling to the US if:

- ✓ You are coming on a Visitor Visa to visit family in the US
- ✓ You are coming on an immigrant visa as a result of a family relationship to someone in the US
- ✓ Students who obtained a student visa to attend a college or university in the US
- ✓ Workers coming to the US on an employment Visa for a company located in the US

Refugees who have no other ties to the US, under the Supreme Court Order, CAN BE DENIED entry to the US.

All decisions regarding who has a "credible" relationship in the US will be left to individual Customs agents abroad and at the ports of entry.

IN REALITY

Muslim travelers continue to encounter stricter screening, long delays, improper questioning, improper searches and detentions at the border. If you are questioned improperly at the border regarding your country or origin, ethnicity, religion or political beliefs CAIR-MI advises that you:

- ✓ Remain polite and calm
- ✓ Respectfully decline to answer the agent's questions
- ✓ Ask to speak to a supervisor
- ✓ Obtain the name of the agent along with his badge number
- ✓ Contact CAIR-MI to report the incident

If you are a national from one of the six banned countries and are not a citizen or lawful permanent resident of the US, CAIR-MI encourages you to contact an immigration attorney prior to traveling internationally.

MCWS Youth Stay Busy!

When most young people think of going to the masjid, they think of going for prayer, of friday khutbahs, and maybe the occasional lecture addressed to the youth. They don't necessarily think of it as a place to spend time with other muslim youth, in an environment that encourages spiritual growth while also being fun. That's exactly how it is at MCWS. The masjid is a safe space for us, as the youth, to gain friends that will keep us on the straight path.

One of the most appealing aspects about being a part of GYC (girls' youth committee) or YBC (youth boys' committee) is that it's a lot of fun. Over this past summer we've done events like an olympics event for girls, where we competed in games like capture the flag, tug of war, and water wars; we've also done events like a Mafia Marathon and a drive in movie theater experience, where we went as a group to eat dinner and watch a movie together. These events bring people in that normally wouldn't come to the masjid, or sometimes people from completely different communities. We have a bonfire coming up to kick off the school year on a good note, and we have people coming from communities miles away to join in the fun.

But it's not only about hanging out with friends. Our youth directors, Jumana Abusalah and Osama Odeh, do a really great job of balancing the fun with informative experiences to better us on multiple fronts. Recently we had Ustadh Majed Mahmoud come in and give us a beneficial and relatable talk on gratitude that really gave me a new perspective on the topic, and hopefully it did the same for the many other brothers and sisters who attended. Just this past weekend our mentors organized an event where we had a talk on goals and study skills, and they also arranged for a panel of adults engaged in different career paths for us to benefit from and ask questions to.

In July a weekend-long conference was held for the high school girls where we discussed topics that we chose and wanted to hear about such as confidence, gender relations, and women's rights. In addition, we have a weekly high school and college girls Halaqa led by Sr. Amber; the halaqa is extremely informative while also being interesting and shedding light on topics that aren't usually discussed in great detail.

This summer, the MCWS youth has been actively drawing in new members from the community, growing in numbers and insha'Allah benefitting each and every one of us. I have made so many amazing friends, so many good memories, and I have had so many great experiences through the events held by our youth. Insha'Allah we can continue to expand and get better and better each year as we bring in new faces that will hopefully benefit from our masjid as much as I have.

Safa Razvi, youth.
